

THE DURHAM SAVOYARDS, LTD.

IN ITS 41ST SEASON, PRESENTS

RUDDIGORE ... OR ...

THE WITCH'S CURSE

A MUSICAL COMEDY
BY WILLIAM S. GILBERT
& ARTHUR S. SULLIVAN

FRIDAYS & SATURDAYS, MARCH 19-20
& MARCH 26-27, 2004, 8PM

SUNDAYS, MARCH 21
& MARCH 28, 2004, 2PM

CAROLINA THEATRE
DOWNTOWN DURHAM
919-560-3030

WWW.CAROLINATHEATRE.ORG

All the village men love sweet Rose Maybud, but Rose cares only for the shy Robin Oakapple. Alas, Robin has a secret: he's really Sir Ruthven, Baronet of Ruddigore in disguise, trying to avoid the curse that was cast on the family title. Once his secret is discovered he must commit a dastardly crime each day or suffer the wrath of his ghostly ancestors.

The Durham Savoyards and their orchestra return in their 41st season with this wonderful melodrama parody.

Ticket Information:

Call the Carolina Theatre Box Office,
309 West Morgan Street, Downtown Durham
919-560-3030

or visit www.carolinatheatre.org
$26 (reserved) and $22 (general), seniors $2 off,
students half price, group discounts available
Tickets are on sale now.

About The Durham Savoyards, Ltd.:

This amazing homegrown theatre troupe was born in 1963 out of the love for that perfect combination of W. S. Gilbert's satire and Arthur Sullivan's sparkling music. The Savoyards have staged all of the thirteen extant shows and have mounted annual shows for 41 years running. The company boasts a large family of perennial devotees on and off the stage, people of diverse culture and occupation across the triangle and beyond.

Contact Information:

Donna Clement, publicity director
919-493-0553, dgclement@nc.rr.com
www.durhamsavoyards.org

This program is made possible in part through gifts to the Durham Arts Council United Arts Fund and support from the City of Durham.